A second, more general, question is whether the results of the present study can be generalized to other populations. The present study was conducted with a sample of young, healthy, male, college students. It is not clear whether the results of the present study can be generalized to other populations. For example, it is not clear whether the results of the present study can be generalized to older adults, women, or individuals with chronic pain. Future research should investigate the generalizability of the results of the present study to other populations.

As a result, the Journal of Management has been able to publish a wide range of research, including empirical, conceptual, and methodological studies, as well as research on a variety of management topics. The Journal of Management is a leading journal in the field of management, and its research has been influential in shaping the field of management research.
